Singing Meditation

Sunday January 9, 10.30am

In line with our hope to try out new ideas on Sundays as we emerge from lockdown, our 2nd Sunday of the month will be an alternative spiritual practice event. In current plans, for January, Jenny will lead a Singing Meditation morning. The session will consist of short, sung meditations followed by periods of silence and reflection. An ability to sing is NOT a requirement of this group; this is a group formed to experience the joy of communal song and silence. All are welcome. We will review this planned event in light of COVID guidance nearer the time, but current proposals are for a wide space between chairs, with masks to be worn.

Coffee & Conversation

Sunday January 23, 10.30am

As we emerge from lockdown, and recognizing some of the continuing constraints on our ability to hold full Services each week, we will hold a Coffee & Conversation event on the 4th Sunday of each month. A chance to catch-up, to share news, and to discuss ideas. All are welcome.
